Parents/ Guardians Code of Conduct

- Ensure the Child is appropriately dressed training and matches, including shin pads and waterproof clothing, removed all items of jewellery before training or matches and training for the safety of all.
- Bring a drink (none fizzy)
- Be responsible for ensuring players arrive and are collected at the appointed times. If in doubt please ask.
- You appreciate that the child's involvement in playing football is primarily for his/her own personal enjoyment.
- You must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of the sport. Praise positive aspects of play and avoid becoming frustrated or ridiculing young players by focusing on their failings
- Always encourage your child to play by the 17 rules of football and players code of conduct set out by the FA.
- Act as a role model for your child, effort and teamwork are as important as winning, the result of any game is accepted win or lose.
- Children learn best by example. Applaud good play by your team and by members of the opposing team.
- You should, from the beginning of your association with the Club, clarify with the Club exactly what is expected of you and what you are entitled to expect from the coaches, players and parents
- Only female coaches, managers or parents of the club will be allowed in the female changing rooms, any medical treatment will only be done in the presence of a female coach and or parent/carer.
- Approach any club official on any concerns or problems you may have, we also like to know your thoughts to the clubs approach.
- Notify the club coach if there is any changes in your child's medical condition or if any injury has been sustained.
- Notify the club coach of any change in circumstances of change of address or carers.
- Only female coaches, managers or parents/carers will be allowed into changing areas whilst the players are in a state of undress.
